BROOKLYN NEWS.

100 to Indorse His Canvass.

Supervisors to Show Cause Regarding He is Only 27 and a Stranger in Three New Clerks Appointed at the Meeting of Feb. 5.

The Committee of One Hundred, which did such active work in Brooklyn at the last campaign, convened at 133 Montague street this morning and nominated A. C. Fisher, of 163 Twenty-third street as the candidate for Supervisor for the special election ordered by Gov. Flower be held in the Eight Ward Feb. 28. Immediately after the nomination of Buttling and Supervisor-at-Large Fitchie and were assured that the candidate would be ratified and indersed by the Republicans of the Eighth Ward.

Mr. Fischer is a Democrat, and has always been identified with the party. He was Vice-President of the Democratic Ward Association last year, but left the ranks to work for Mayor Schieren. He is in the distilling business. It is likely that the small faction of Republicans in the Eighth Ward led by Cadmus will object to Mr. Fischer's nomination. They placed Linde in the Field to succeed Kehoe in the face of a howl of indignation from the Republicans in the ward.

night, was filed with the County Clerk to-day.
Counsellor John H. Kemble, representing Supervisor John McKeown, obtained an order from Justice Cullen, in the Superme Court, Brooklyn, to-day, requiring Supervisor-at-Large Thomas Fitchle and the Board of Supervisors of Kings County to show cause Feb. 12 why the proceedings of the Board on Feb. 5 should not be declared a nullity.

Krombach is a popular German florist. Of the 378 votes cast, he received 377 and George Kehoe, the present de facto Supervisor received one.

It is claimed that Supervisor Linde, of the Eighth Ward, has no legal right to a seat in the Board, and that at the meeting of Feb. 5 there was no quorum present. This was the meeting at which President pro tem. John Y. McKane and Clerks Farrell and Dowden were deposed.

It is alleged that Hallenberg really rented the place for Emmet, who spent a large part of last Summer there with a gay party of friends. Mrs. Doran alleges that up to the present time $440.72 is due for rent.

Emmet this morning tried to have an old judgment vacated. Justice Cullen decided against him.

PUGLIESO'S VICTIM DEAD.

His Slayer Is at Large.

The Brooklyn police are still looking for Peter Puglieso, who is wanted for the murder of John Tutolo, of 145 Twentieth street, South Brooklyn. Tutolo

In his ante-mortem statement Tutolo and that on Tuesday evening he met Puglieso on Third avenue, near Nine-teenth street. Puglieso was angry because Tutolo had him evicted from 151 Twentieth street for non-payment of rant. Hot words passed between the two, and ended in Puglieso drawing an old sword from under his coat and stabilize Tuelo in the abdomen.

WILL NOT REMOVE VETERANS.

Positions Are Secure.

Ross Appleton, Collector of Taxes, when seen at his office in Brooklyn, said his morning that the veterans of the cierical force of his office would not be removed. There are eight of them. The only veteran to be removed is Lieut.-Col. Seldon C. Clobridge, who was an assistant bookkeeper in the Tax office. Clobridge is now under indict-ment for complicity in the recent rebate frauda session his gold watch and chain and 19.43 in change. He was locked up, and Detective Dolan was detailed to investigate his story.

(From the Philadelphia Times.) A striking instance of commercial enterprise is the buying of the entire stock of dry goods belonging to the dissolved firm of Wellington & Co., of this city, by the house of Bloomingdale Bros. New York. The promptness with which the goods were acquired was only equalled by the celerity with which they were transferred to New York. The purchasers chartered a special freight frain and sent over fifty men, who soon had the whole stock packed and on board the cars.

Dolan learned from Mrs. Taggart that her husband had left home early in the evening with at least $200 in his pockets. At midnight he entered McKenna's saloon at Concord and Bridge streets. There was a crowd in front of the bar.

Taggart was then in a jolly mood and offered to buy drinks for several men in the party. He displayed a large roll of bills when he paid for the drinks. Some time afterwards he started to go home. A man who had been in the saloon followed him outside.

Taggart alleges that he was attacked immediately after leaving the saloon. The bartender, however, says that he did not hear any scuffle.

Detective Dolan found two hats in the gutter, one of which belonged to Taggart. Capt. Campbell is satisfied that the man's story is true and the detectives are still looking for his assailant.

Mrs. Baer, it is said, prevented her husband from attacking her paramour by throwing herself in Baer's arms. The fugitive escaped through a window to a vacant lot in the rear. In the meantime Baer got his revolver and snapped it five times in trying to shoot the fleeting man. He afterwards learned his wife had removed the cartridges. Mrs. Baer has since disappeared.
